Brighton – a city by the sea...

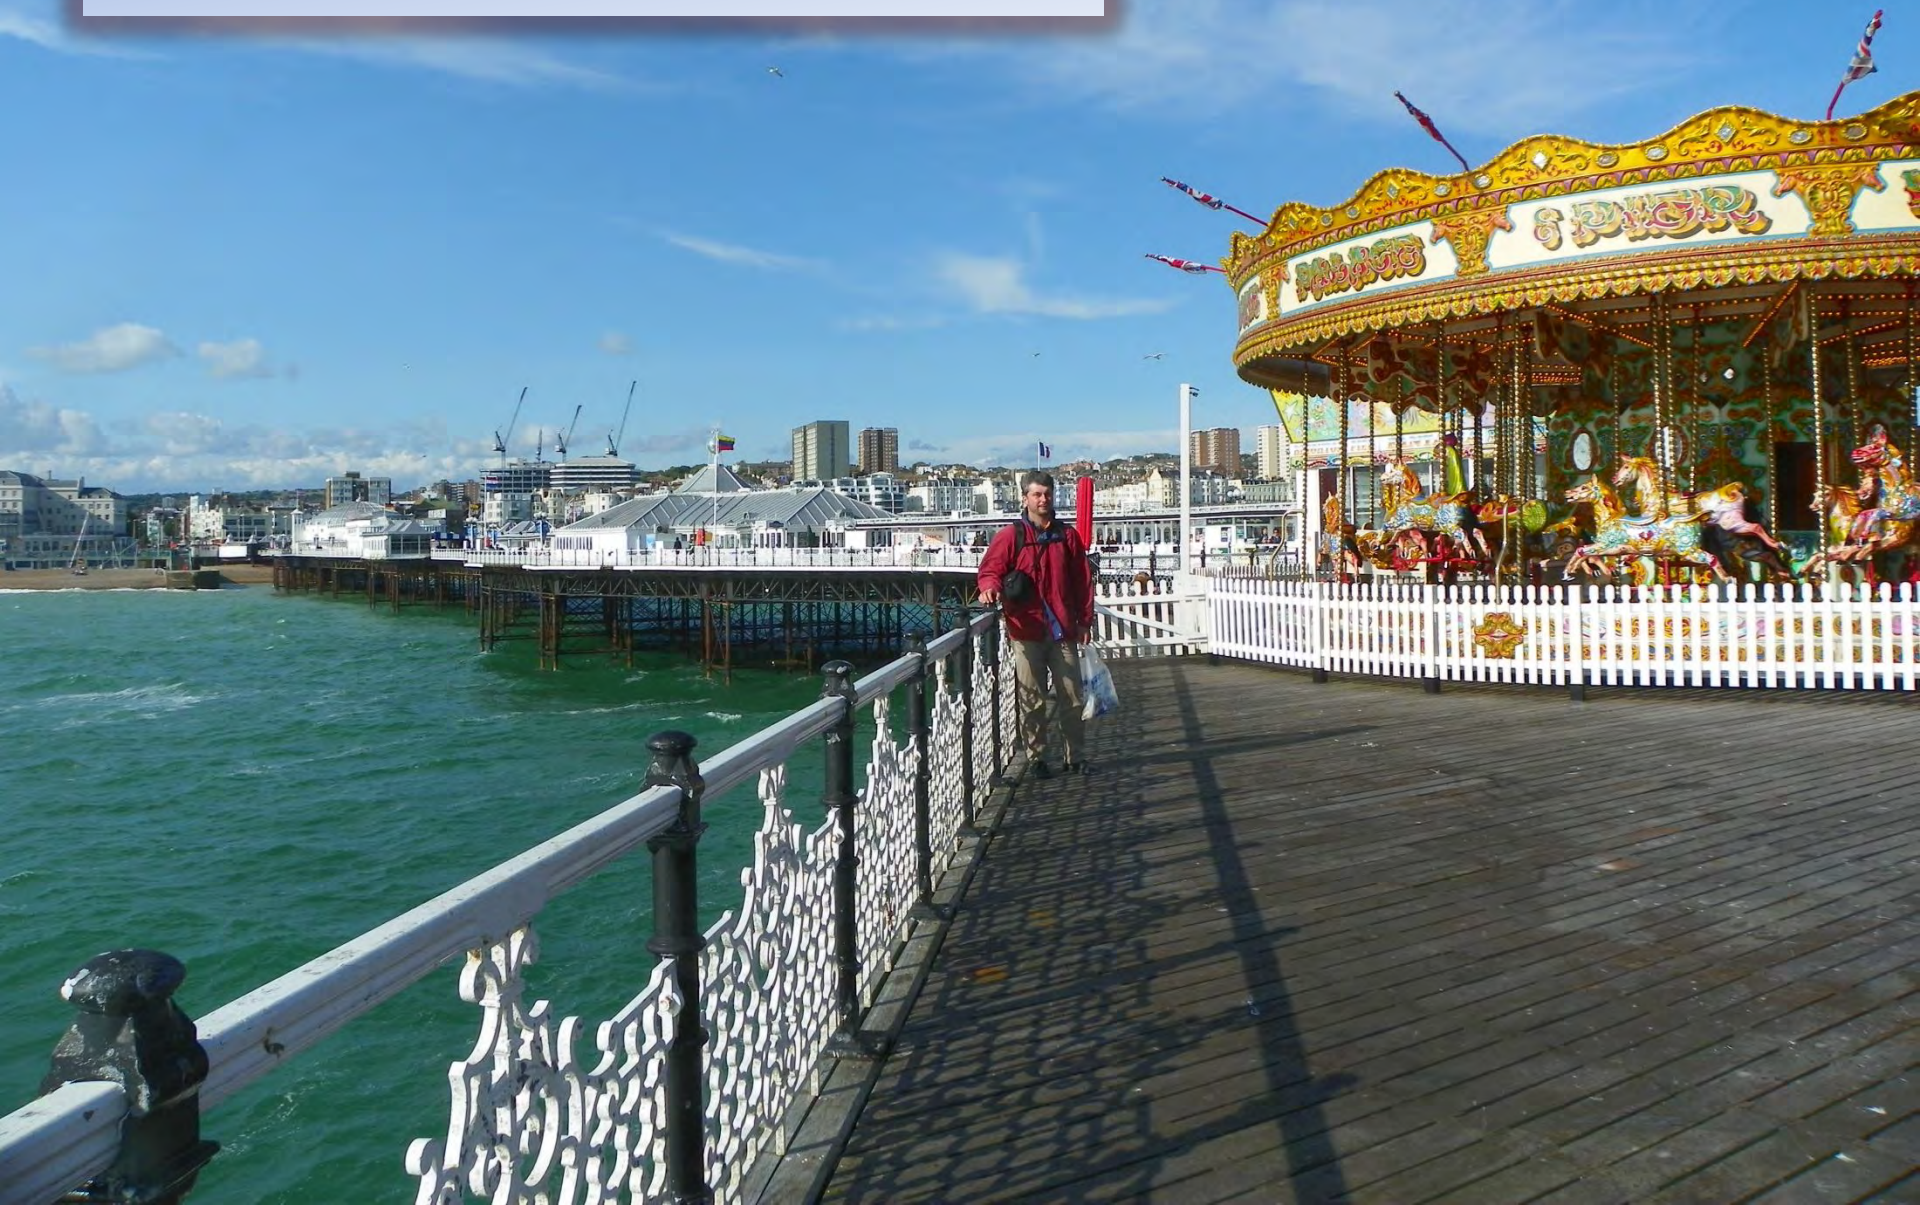

...trendy coastal town with wonderful beach...

...with famous Brighton Pier...

...where you can find a lot of bars, amusements
arcades and roundabouts...

...city of seagulls...

...city with special
atmosphere...

EC – English Language Centre in Brighton offers many English courses for people around the world.

...most of students was young people around the world

...we chose accommodation – homestay: staying with a real English-speaking family to learn about the local culture and naturally practise our English...

...the house of our host-family was 20 minutes by bus from our school...

...after our lessons, in our free time, we could explore the surrounding of Brighton...
...famous White cliffs near Brighton...

...wild beauty of White cliffs...

...wild cliffs...

...wild cliffs...

...the way on the top of the cliffs...

...the port near Brighton...

...beaches in Brighton with famous Brighton Pier

...Brighton Lines with historical atmosphere...

...we could improve our language skills during day trips with right english gentleman....

We could taste a small piece of English history (Windsor castle)

...and English traditions...(the Bridge from Windsor to Eton)

...Brighton Royal pavilion...

...Devil's Dyke – special countryside around Brighton...

...Devil's Dyke...
