

Brighton

Pavel Znamínko
November 2011

School - my classmates – across the world

We did not know breaks

We studied all days

And when we had free time

Delayed train was fine

We swam a little

Met the horses and beetle

We wandered through the map

To the sea it was a step

To hunt wild game was a shock

In London ended this English block

See you next time

